The World Health Organization declared a global pandemic of COVID-19 due to widespread human infection worldwide. We are monitoring this situation and are committed to open access to our courts and service to the public, and to protect the health and safety of the litigants, judges, court staff and security, attorneys, jurors, other participants in court proceedings, and all other persons in the court facilities.

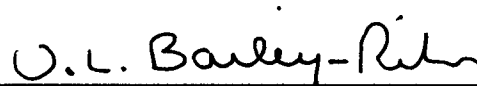

These guidelines are in place to ensure the continuous performance of the court's essential functions and operations and yet seek to mitigate the risk that our employees, lawyers, litigants, and jurors will be exposed. The guidelines incorporate use of videoconferencing and teleconferencing to minimize contact, when appropriate; follow social distancing practices; and temporarily suspend some non-essential court functions.

Cases will proceed as currently scheduled unless otherwise notified by the Court.

TEMPORARY AND EMERGENCY GUIDELINES FOR PROCEEDINGS FOR CRIMINAL CASES

This coronavirus health situation constitutes good cause for all proceedings involving out-of-custody defendants to be rescheduled until after April 17, 2020, or held by telephone or video-conference. Individual branches will be contacting case parties if proceedings will be rescheduled or handled by phone or in writing. If not rescheduled or advised of an alternative appearance mode, parties are required to appear for their proceedings as scheduled.

Each judge has discretion to deviate from these guidelines as deemed appropriate, and any party may request a hearing to determine the mode and schedule for any proceeding.

These guidelines apply to all criminal proceedings, including:

- Initial appearances
- Preliminary hearings/status conferences
- Arraignments
- Final pretrial conferences
- Bail/bond hearings
- Motion or other hearings
- Plea hearings
- Status conferences before trial
- Trials
- Sentencing hearings
- Restitution hearings

Proceedings involving in-custody defendants, who are not being held on any basis other than the case-at-bar, will presumptively proceed as timely scheduled. However, each judge has discretion to deviate from this guideline as deemed appropriate, and each party may request a specific hearing for a ruling on the case schedule.

Individual branches will be contacting case parties if proceedings will be rescheduled or handled by phone or in writing. If not rescheduled or advised of an alternative appearance mode, parties are required to appear for their proceedings as scheduled.
